

June 28, 1939.

Mr. Bob Rose,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I have just received this Morning a letter from Partridge about balls that we ordered about two weeks ago. In it he speaks of balls Mr. Gottlieb ordered shipped to Winston-Salem and wants to know if they were on the same order. This is most unsatisfactory service, in fact, it will be necessary for Mr. Manley to make his usual trip to New York tomorrow to obtain balls.

If we cannot get better service than this, I might as well forget about ordering balls through the mail. I had expected a gross of balls in my office over a week ago, and find myself today without any.

Would appreciate hearing from you whether it is possible to get the kind of service I want or not, otherwise, I will have to forget about ordering balls through the mail.

Yours very truly,

EM:CCJ